

Problem Statement:

There is not an accurate map as to where all of the vending machines on the USC campus are located.

Details:

I plan to create a virtual map of all of the vending machines within the USC campus on a digital site that will allow you to use your location to find the closest machines. There will also be an option to search for vending machines close to a particular location (i.e. Russell House).